National Junior Squads Announced for 2019

We are pleased to announce the final selections for our National Junior Squads. The 2019 National Junior Squads were selected by the BA Junior Selectors in line with criteria outlined in the Junior High-Performance Program Plan.

The players who have been named in these squads will be heading along to the national Training Camp at the AIS in Canberra on the 31st of May till 3rd June. A selection of these players will also be heading along to the BWF World Junior Championships, held in Kazan, Russia, in late October 2019.

Discover & Engage (U15 National Squad)		Progress & Excel Group (U19 National Squad)
Boys	Girls	Boys	Girls
Don Bui (SA)	Dania Nugroho (SA)	Rio Agustino (NSW)	Majam Almazan (NSW)
Asher Ooi (NSW)	Catrina Tan (SA)	Ethan Chen (NSW)	Kaitlyn Ea (VIC)
Timothy Sentosa (WA)	Sydney Tjonadi (NSW)	Gavin Ong (SA)	Sydney Go (VIC)
	Joanne Zheng (WA)	Ricky Tang (NSW)	Priska Kustiadi (NSW)
		Ryan Venpin (VIC)	Angie Liu (NSW)
		Jack Yu (QLD)	Carina Sam (NSW)
		Otto Zhao (VIC)	Bernice Teoh (WA)
			Kelly Xu (NSW)
			Angela Yu (QLD)

There are some familiar names in the squads with some fresh faces being added which is fantastic. Additionally, the spread of representatives from across the country is great to see, we have 5 of 8 states represented and all with multiple players.

Players who would like to be considered for the 2020 National Junior Program should familiarise themselves with the selection criteria in the BA Junior High-Performance Program Plan and are encouraged to do so.
